ENDOWMENT BOND.

Do you know that an Endowment Bond in the Provident Savings Life Insurance Society combines protection and investment, and at the end of twenty years the principal sum would be paid to you in cash, with accumulated profits, and in event of death during the premium paying term, a cash addition to the principal sum assured, representing a return of from thirty to ninety per cent of the total premiums paid would be included in the amount then due and payable to your beneficiary? I. R. Burns, Resident Manager, New Magoon building.

but that was enough to attract much attention at the fashionable ballroom. There were many ladies there, but none so charming. None so attractive. Her hair was her beauty. Other dresses as rich, other faces as pretty, other dancers as perfect, but no other hair so becomingly dressed; and the lady was the center of attraction. It is always so. MANY INSURANCE SUITS
DISCONTINUED YESTERDAY

Chinese Litigants are Yielding to Recent Supreme Court Ruling on Policies Containing Civil Authority Clause.

The numerous Chinatown suits against insurance companies for losses in the great fire at the time of the plague are fast being cancelled by the plaintiffs. Yesterday Paul Neumann appeared at the court house with papers preparatory to discontinuing thirteen of the cases, and F. M. Brooks filed a discontinuance in the case of Wing Chau against the Royal Insurance Company, the plaintiff paying the accrued costs.

The cause of these general withdrawals is the recent decision of the supreme court wherein it was held that the fire was started by civil authority. The various policies happen to be worded against shouldering loss after that manner of conflagration and to further press the suits would be futile. In many cases, however, the attorneys are withholding their dismissals for reasons best known to themselves. They may be waiting like Micawber for something to turn up in their favor, and there is an old saying that while there is life there is hope. The supreme court in this connection pointed out that to nullify a policy on the civil authority phase that authority in no sense need be shown to be legal.

In one case there was a decision against an insurance company where "civil commotion" were the words used, but that is another matter.

How to Cure Croup.

Mr. R. Gray, who lives near Amelia Duchess county, N. Y., says: "Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is the best medicine I have ever used. It is a fine children's remedy for croup and never fails to cure." When given as soon as the child becomes hoarse, or even after the croup has developed, it will prevent the attack. This should be borne in mind and a bottle of the Cough Remedy kept at hand ready for instant use as soon as these symptoms appear.
